Students:

Whether you are new this term, or returning, please take care to be mindful of your fellow students during this season's inclement weather. The weather and road conditions can be especially hazardous for both pedestrians and drivers--and if you are driving, please keep in mind that pedestrians are not, so show a bit of courtesy--it will be appreciated!

Thank you! ☺ Chrystal, your Bandit Editor

Winter!

CCC and The American Red Cross will be hosting our annual Blood Drive:

Thursday, January 26

9:30 am - 2:30 pm

Bloodmobile @ Fertig

Please sign up with an ASBG Officer to give blood, and possibly share the gift of life.

Identification is required to donate.

Office hours are posted for Winter term, however, someone may be in the office at times not posted--please come by and check if you need something. As always, we welcome input regarding what is or is not working for you on campus. Please feel free to contact us so we can help if possible. Also, students are encouraged to submit articles or other pieces for publication in The Bandit.

A Message from the Editor:

I know it may sound like I'm on a soap-box this issue, but there were no submissions for "Writer's Block," and there have been some issues I have wanted to address for some time. On the cover is a message requesting common courtesy toward fellow students and consideration of safety on campus. The issue of safety is a concern for everyone, and others have requested this issue be addressed as well--drivers please slow down! We all know parking is hard to find, and the roads are narrow, but especially during foul weather, drivers need to be aware of their speed and the presence of pedestrians between campus buildings.

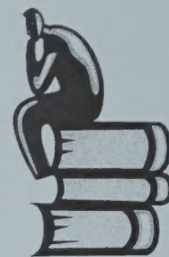

Another issue I would like to address is graffiti. This is college--this is our space while we attend classes here, and we should treat it with respect. Not just because I am asking, but for ourselves. Respect for one's self is the most important factor each of us can remember to keep in mind on a daily basis. Be it being prepared for class, how you act toward or treat others, and/or how you treat the property of yourself and others (meaning the campus)! Several times throughout the year visitors come to our campus to see for themselves if this is a place they want to be, and how does it look to have graffiti scrawled on walls?! It may look like our students don't have pride in our school, or in themselves that they would vandalize the campus. Again, let's show some pride in ourselves, as well as our school and be more considerate of our surroundings.

Well, I've said my piece. I feel better, and I hope that you will take this as a message of pride rather than prejudice in helping promote school spirit!

Thanks for reading... © Chrystal

ASBG Office Fully Staffed

Welcome Ben & Constance!

So far, this term has been busy for your Associated Student Body Government (ASBG). Ben Fenison was appointed to the Sports & Clubs Senator position, and Constance Wachha was appointed as Social Activities Senator. Both Ben and Constance are looking forward to being involved here on campus through service on ASBG and their academic studies. Look for them around campus, or stop by the ASBG Office (downstairs Patriot) to meet them. All ASBG Officers have hours they will be in the office, and schedules are posted around campus.

Other business going on is the Blood Drive scheduled for January 26, 9:30 am - 2:30 pm. Register by signing-up with an ASBG Officer to donate.

The ASBG Valentine Balloon Bouquet Sale is also going-on. Order sheets are available at the ASBG Office and in the Bookstore.

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS:

January is the time to submit your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the 2006-2007 school year. Applying early in the year will get eligible students in the running for most of the available grant funding.

Applying with your pin #:

If you previously applied for federal aid and were sent a pin # you can file a shortened RENEWAL FAFSA online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Sign your electronic application using your pin # and then wait to hear from our office regarding your next steps.

Applying without a pin #:

1) You can apply for a pin # at the website listed above and wait to receive it in your email account before filing your 2006-07 FAFSA application.

OR.....

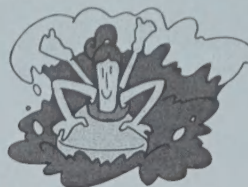

2) You can request to sign your application with a signature page that will print out toward the end of your application process. Be sure to send the signature page--via postal mail--to the address that is listed on the signature page. Please note: you must continue beyond printing out the signature page section until you see the button "submit my application." Once you click on that button your application will be sent off electronically.

IMPORTANT: Please allow 2-4 weeks from the date you filed your FAFSA application to hear from the Financial Aid office regarding further documentation that may be needed.

Scholarship Information...

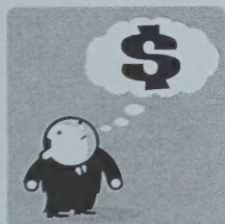

Calling All Students! 2006-2007 Scholarship Season Has Begun!

The Oregon Student Assistance Commission (OSAC) has released the 2006-2007 Scholarship Application for Oregon residents! Last year 7,200 Oregon students completed applications with OSAC and 3,100 of those students received scholarship awards totaling more than $11 million! The average scholarship awards from OSAC are between $1,000 and $2,000 each; some are less and a few are over $20,000!

OSAC applications are due by March 1, 2006, but students applying by February 15 can enter the drawing to win a $500 Early Bird Scholarship. Students are encouraged to access information and apply online at www.GetCollegeFunds.org but a paper application is also available in the Clatsop Financial Aid Office.

The CCC Financial Aid Office is happy to announce that an OSAC Representative will be on campus to conduct a Scholarship Workshop to assist students in this application process.

OSAC Scholarship Workshop
Wednesday, February 1st
2:00 to 3:00
Patriot Hall Room 326

Don't miss this opportunity for assistance and insight on applying for scholarships through OSAC!

Please also note that the application period to apply for scholarships to attend Clatsop CC in 2006-2007 will be April 3, 2006 through April 21, 2006. All scholarships and information will be posted on our website at www.clatsopcc.edu beginning in March.
